

CCC Group Counseling Policy 2024-2025

- Each group session is processed on the date of service, and you will receive a receipt and insurance claim form either by email or in person, whichever you prefer.
- Group therapy is insurance reimbursable based on your individual insurance policy and CCC provides you with the forms to submit to your insurance company for you to submit.
- CCC group facilitator will provide the following: dates/times of group sessions, reminder calls/emails, ongoing email communication and an overview of the group format/ content.
- Group counseling at CCC follows all CCC office and practice policies and procedures provided, agreed upon and signed in new intake paperwork.
- A Parent, caregiver or client can request an individual session with group facilitator at any time to discuss group progression. An individual session fee will be applied.

Time-Limited, Closed Groups Only

(High School DBT-Informed Group and Elementary School Social Thinking ® Group)

- To ensure that the group dynamics are consistent, meaningful and positive, we require registered group members to attend and participate in all group sessions. The clinical content and material of the group sessions build on each other to provide a clinical experience that maximizes this modality and potential outcomes for our clients who consistently participate.
- Course payment in full is collected prior to the start of the first session. If you wish to discuss other payment options, please contact Emily Greenberger, emily@collaborativecounselingcenter.com
- Cost Social Thinking ® & Me Course: $850 (includes 10 sessions, materials, nut free snack)
DBT-Informed HS Course $1,200 (includes 12 sessions, materials, nut free snack)
- If a group must be cancelled due to group facilitator, a CCC provider will substitute for that session.
- If your child wants to terminate with the group, CCC group facilitator will meet with the client and/or parent to discuss plan moving forward.
